Recycling of the Wreck

- Sections will be held in place by the VB-10,000 until firmly secured to the deck barge.
- Each section will be wrapped in a high strength netting to contain loose material inside the sections.

Each section will be transported, via barge, to a certified recycling facility for further dismantling and recycling.

